

Important Notice: Fraudulent employment offers

Aichi Corporation has recently become aware of fraudulent employment offers being transmitted via email and through social media forums by people claiming to be directors, officers and employees of Aichi Corporation using the company logo without authorization.

Please be advised that neither Aichi Corporation (including directors, officers and employees) have any connection with fraudulent e-mails and social media forums, unsolicited business proposals nor any other solicitations from persons falsely claiming to be affiliated with Aichi Corporation, and Aichi Corporation shall not be responsible for any damages caused thereby.

If you receive such a message or you have any question, please contact us from the form on our website.